Some of the ex rebel Judges in Virginia are try ing to force the payment of a portion of the rebel war debt The Lynchburg Court of Appeals has just decided that the cities of Danville and Lynch burg are liable for small notes issued during the rebellion for war purposes The Richmond City Council recently undertook to assume a debt of this character but failed and the question had been taken into the court there Bankers and brokers in various parts of the State are gathering up this class of paper for nominal prices and do ing all they can to get it declared good

TREASURER SPINNER ON THE NATIONAL FINANCES

WASHINGTON Dec 24 —United States Treasurer Spinner in a letter to Hon David Wilder of Massachusetts condemns the latter's plan for the resumption of specie payments by striking down instantly at one blow the nominal value of the United States legal tender notes to an arbitrary value of only three fourths of its face as forced and violent and argues that it would cause jar and confusion and mischief, not only in mone tary but in all business affairs He eulogizes Governor Morton's bill as proposing to build up and foster the appreciation of the greenback to the par value of gold by a process so gradual gentle steady and smooth that the change would scarce be perceptible by the debtor or creditor and both alike would be able to meet their busi ness calculations and business arrangements from time to time during the process of appreciation with such accuracy that no harm could come to either class He however prefers to see the bill amended in various particulars The two leading ones are 1st Banks should not be per mitted to remain in a state of suspension for a day much less for six months after resumption by the Treasury of the United States and 2d The dividends on the government bonds belonging to banks but held in trust by the Treasurer as se curity for redemption of their circulating notes should be retained by the Treasurer and not paid over to the bank to be held by them until the day of resumption and the selection of these div idends by the Treasurer should commence a year earlier than proposed by the bill

SECRETS OF THE CONFEDERATE GOVERNMENT

From the New York [illegible] 22]

In his article on the flight of Jefferson Davis in the current number of Packard's Magazine Mr Edward A Pollard makes the remarkable statement that the bulk of the valuable docu ments of the Confederate Government including the correspondence of Jefferson Davis exists to day in concealment that many days before the fall of Richmond there was a careful selection of important papers especially those in the office of the President, and letters which involved confi dences in the North and in Europe and that these were secretly conveyed out of Richmond, and deposited in a place where they remain con cealed to this time, and will probably not be un earthed in this generation Where is this reposi tory of the secrets of the Confederate Govern ment Mr Pollard is not prepared to say

He has repeatedly sought access to these pa pers out of historical curiosity but he has been invariably met with the explanation that while this indulgence might be allowed him for such legitimate purpose it would be unsafe for private reasons and the information if published might be productive of serious consequences to persons of importance yet living and within the jurisdic tion of the government It has been impossible to surmount this objection, and there is no doubt that many of these papers do really involve dis coveries of some curious negotiations in the war the parties to which might astound the public During the war it was well known in some circles of confidence in Richmond that Mr Davis maintained a large secret correspondence in the North that he had sources of comfort informa tion and advice there and indeed it would have been strange considering the disaffection in the North—a remarkable peculiarity of the late war —if it had not found some expression in secret negotiation for some sort of surreptitious commu nication with the Confederate authorities Mr Pollard mentions the case of a single secret docu ment which he was once permitted to see in Rich mond wherein certain parties offered to assist the Confederacy by supplying Western armies for a year from the granaries and magazines of the North Such important letters and other secret papers says Mr Pollard) still exist were preserved from the wreck and fire of Richmond and at this mo ment are kept in a manner and place which render them secure against discovery loss or mutilation

The mysterious information which Mr Pollard thus communicates is much more agreeable than the belief which we had before entertained that the papers in question had perished We can testify that on the capture of Richmond the offices of the Confederate Government were found to have been carefully stripped of every document which was thought important and that the rebel archives now preserved at Washington are of very little historical value indeed

Speaker Colfax

[illegible] the great [illegible] on the evening [illegible] Saturday evening last Hon Schuyler Colfax [illegible] was [illegible] hospital [illegible] The banquet [illegible] was appropriately decorated and the dinner was [illegible] gentlemen who [illegible] represented the noble organization which has shed such renown upon our city and the occasion was one enjoyed [illegible] all who were present Hon [illegible] presided and after the substantial [illegible] removed proposed the health of the distinguished guest in a few words befitting the occasion Mr Colfax replied as follows

[illegible] for the pleasure and I regard [illegible] famed for its good works [illegible] during all the years of its exist ence Ever on the side of the nation and the na tion's interests—ever outspoken for liberty loyal ty and law—its trumpet has never given forth an uncertain sound, and its members have never wearied in well doing There is a majesty in the voice of a great people speaking through its ag gregated millions of ballots far more potential than the decrees from a throne It is like the voice of many waters, drowning all other sounds It is like the thunder rolling along the sky which purifies the atmosphere It is the command of a nation which all within its limits must heed and respect What the utterance of the 3d of Novem ber means it is not difficult to understand It ratified the platform of principles enunciated at Chicago and which had been cordially endorsed by both of your candidates in their letters of ac ceptance But more than this to all who de nounced the reconstruction measures of Congress as unconstitutional revolutionary and void to all who suggested their repeal by the bayonet to all who had dishonored the country by countless murders of defenceless men for their love of the Union to all who boasted of devotion to the lost cause it spoke with the commanding voice of au thority Peace be still But with the peace which it thus demanded it brings prosperity With the laws of the land respected and obeyed, with pro tection to all assured and with confidence thus re stored immigration and capital will open a new and brighter era to the enfranchised and regener ated South and with her great staples and genial climate she will join the East the North and the West in the triumphal march of national progress and power Nor was this all The voice of the people proclaimed anew that the paramount duty of Government was to secure the life, liberty and rights of all its citizens even to the humblest, and that American citizenship must protect all en titled to its protection, at home and abroad. It reaffirmed [to quote the language of the Chicago resolutions] the great principles of impartial jus tice and equal rights laid down in the immortal Declaration of Independence as the true founda tion of democratic government—hailing with glad ness every effort toward making these principles a living reality on every inch of American soil And with a wise and generous magnanimity, too little appreciated heretofore by those responsible for the bloodshed and anguish of our late war it declared in favor of the removal of all disqualifi cations in the same measure as the spirit of disloy alty may die out and as may be consistent with the safety of the loyal people But beside this the voice of the people thus spoken, imposed grave duties and responsibilities on all whom it clothed with public trusts It demands the most searching retrenchment like that which signalized the administration by its President elect of one of the governmental departments entrusted to his hands. It demands honesty and efficiency, a high character, of all who are to be connected with the public service, that the honest tax payer may no longer be required to bear the burden of the dis honest as well as his own With a President whose cardinal principle is that the law of the land must be observed, and not thwarted or nulli fied the nation may hope that his subordinates will exhibit a fidelity to duty akin to their chief It demands a strict and rigid guardianship of the nation's treasury against all unwise and extrava gant schemes It demands a financial policy which shall maintain, unimpaired and untarn ished our credit—the right arm of the country— in times of peril which shall appreciate our cur rency and which shall finally place us on the firm rock of specie payment With all this se cured by the Administration of the great com mander whom the people have called to govern the land which under Providence, he saved, not only shall we fortify and continue the political ascendancy which the people have decreed, but all parties and all sections will be able to rejoice as our Republic takes that foremost place among the nations of the earth to which our free insti tutions our vast resources and our unparalleled in dustrial advancement now beckon us

The Age of Enterprise.

We live in an age of enterprise and stupendous results By means of steam power and the tele graph—both of which were given to the world by the United States—more has been done within the last fifty years towards diffusing intelligence en lightment and Christianity , toward assimilating national interests and suppressing warlike ten dencies toward elevating the human race and cementing them in one great family than had be fore been accomplished in all the years since the creation taking existing records as authority Deprive the world of its two great motors, elec tricity and steam and it would at once resolve itself back to semi barbarism The walls of ex clusiveness conceit ignorance and superstition are crashing on all sides We have lined the ocean bed with cables and are sending the light ning from land to land under the deep sea. Each flash is pregnant with intelligence conveyed from one hemisphere to another thousands of miles distant with the speed of thought Each spark of the electric messenger proclaims conquest over the elements and the immortality of man's soul Distance has been annihilated and time anticipated

The Pacific Railroad has coupled the two ex tremes of our country and brought them so near to each other that the intervening space may be passed over in as little time as was required to make a journey of three hundred miles fifty years ago Large powerful and swift ocean steamers now part the waters of every sea and with such wonderful regularity that the periods for sailing and arriving are stated with exactness The canal which is to connect the waters of the Red Sea with the Mediterranean and afford one of the grandest passages to com merce is the work of this age that which will unite the Atlantic and the Pacific across the Isthmus [illegible] has been projected and will probably be [illegible] in this century Another [illegible] the great American lakes with the [illegible] furnish direct inland water communication from New Orleans to the mouth of [illegible] projected and will un doubtedly be a realization before two decades shall have passed away The great Mont Cenis railway is being pushed [illegible] work of this age A [illegible] between England and France [illegible] bridge to span the sea [illegible] the two countries have already been [illegible] and are not deemed impossible [illegible] have disappeared and deep valleys [illegible] The face of physical [illegible] alterations

Agricultural Notes

A Hamburg (N Y) farmer, who has had large experience in feeding cabbage and turnips to cows says his practice is to feed immediately af ter milk—never before and he has never been troubled with the milk being flavored. He also says he feeds turnips whole with the tops on, as there is no danger from choking when fed in this way

An experienced fruit grower, who [illegible] a beautiful orchard near the Niagara river, W New York, has used one simple method with great success He takes lye from leached ashes, mixes a little grease with it, heats it quite warm, and with a syringe throws it up into all parts of the tree, branches and trunk It will [illegible] kill all caterpillars and all kinds of worms that are infesting the trees in nests or running over the bark Trees treated in this manner were [illegible] ingly healthy, beautiful and vigorous in [illegible] ance possessed a smooth glossy bark, and bore the best apples of the country The remedy is easy and cheap.

It is stated that acorns of the cork oak, planted in California in 1858, have grown to trees fifteen to twenty feet high and from eight to ten inches in diameter If the climate of that State should prove favorable to the growth of this tree, as this experiment would [illegible] to indicate, cork oak or chards might be profitable investments for the fu ture The present supply of cork is drawn chiefly from southern Europe [illegible] and it is quite limited and growing scarce. The tree is not nec essarily destroyed by partially stripping it of the bark, and with care a forest might be made to yield [illegible]

GREELEY'S REPLY TO SENATOR MORTON—SPE CIE PAYMENTS —The Tribune of December 21st, contained Horace Greeley's reply to Senator Mor ton. He favors immediate resumption, and be lieves that there will be no run on the Treasury if specie payment were begun to-morrow or on the first of January on our $70,000,000, or if we don't resume immediately he would use $50,000,000 to buy up and cancel bonds, and thus appreciate the National credit The one thing needful for re sumption is to provide some form of national ob ligation which holders of greenbacks will prefer to coin and this can be obtained by making bonds which shall be perfectly secure. He closes by saying that the bonds are not to be convertible into greenbacks, and I rejoice in believing that you are at length satisfied that the greenbacks, if paid soon or at all must be converted into bonds, I urge that course, therefore, which will make conversion practicable I want [illegible] made equal to coin, not in 1871, but very early in 1869 and I recommend the plan that leads directly to this result. I seek [illegible] our greenbacks may be funded at [illegible] favorable to our taxpayers I seek an early re duction of the interest on the five-twenties as fast as the Government's option shall have matured, to 5 and if possible to 4 per cent , and I have steadfastly advocated early redemption and exe crated every form of repudiation from the start But for the infamously dishonest proposition that the five-twenties might be justly paid in green backs and the powerful names whereby that vil lany was upheld we might have resumed and commenced funding our five-twenties at a much lower rate of interest long ago This country is [illegible] day many millions poorer and much farther from solvency by reason of that wretched device of Copperhead rascality the greenback theory and of the countenance lent to it by men whose patriotism and sense of obligation to the nation's creditors should have kept them out of this slough if their integrity did not suffice When this countenance shall have been wholly with drawn and apologized for we shall be very near to resumption

A GREAT MANY DUCKS The Louisville [illegible] in noticing a visit of Johnnie More head to that city is reminded of an incident that occurred in the good old days when his father was Governor of Kentucky

[illegible] kept a drinking saloon and res taurant in Frankfort, tendered his monthly [illegible] to [illegible] Johnnie the boys could get credit there which amounted to $150 Johnnie went to his father to get the money

"One hundred and fifty dollars Johnnie" said the Governor "it's a large bill son"

"Yes I entertained a great many friends last month"

"Have you the bill with you"

"I believe so" hesitatingly

"Let me see it son"

Johnnie slowly drew forth a long strip of paper on which there were nearly thirty items put down as "Ducks" ranging from ten cents to as many dollars The Governor adjusted his specs and regarded it attentive ly and said

"D k S D k S Johnnie my son what does this stand for"

"Ducks father ducks" But of course they were not all ducks some were partridges and snipe and even eggs and oysters. But Lou Murry put them down as all ducks

The Governor looked first at Johnnie then at the bill and giving an ominous hem wrote a check

Nobody ever believed the Governor was fooled but after that— "will you take a duck" was for a long time a favorite con vivial invitation with the Frankfort boys

The Debt and the Interest

[illegible] capitalists [illegible] will cause a large [illegible] of the principal [illegible] It is far [illegible] should [illegible] in the place of the bonds which has a security bearing a lower rate of interest than the obligations [illegible] the Government would be repudiated [illegible] just the extent of the [illegible] interest The Herald endeavors to escape from these difficulties by citing the action of Congress during the last session It says the proposition to place the debt at a lower rate of interest was what mostly engaged the attention of that body before the adjournment last summer It then gives the first section of a bill introduced in Congress for the reduction of the rate of interest, which we also reproduce

Be it enacted, &c. That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to issue coupon or registered bonds of the United States in such form as he may prescribe and of denominations of $100 or any multiple of that sum redeemable in coin at the pleasure of the United States after thirty and forty years respectively and bearing the following rates of yearly interest payable semi annually in coin that is to say—the interest of bonds falling due in thirty years shall bear interest at 4½ per cent and bonds falling due in forty years shall bear interest at 4 per cent which said bonds and the interest thereon shall be exempt from the payment of all taxes or duties to the United States other than such income tax as may be assessed on their incomes as well as from taxation in any form by or under State municipal or local authority and the said bonds shall be exclusively used par for par for the redemption of or in exchange for an equal amount of any of the present outstanding bonds of the United States known as the five twenty bonds, and may be issued to an amount in the aggregate sufficient to cover the principal of all such five twenty bonds and no more

This bill did not become a law but had it become a law it would have been an impotent piece of legislation and totally inoperative It would not have removed a single difficulty which lies in the way of reducing the interest It was not proposed in the act to compel the bondholders to surrender their present securities and receive others bearing the reduced rate of interest the Government could not do that The act proceeded on the principle that for the sake of the greater security which it offered the bondholders might be induced to exchange the old bonds for the new ones The Herald is delighted with the supposed discovery that this act was a proposition on the part of Congress for partial repudiation Nothing of the kind For no bondholder was to be compelled to take the new bonds the object was to frame the act in such a manner that he would prefer the four or four and a-half per cents on account of their better security to the present six per cents or five-twenty bonds The exchange was to be made at the option of the holder, not at the command of the Government The Government cannot claim the right to redeem its securities except in strict accordance with the terms on which the creditor took them Congress did not pass this act, wisely judging that it would be inadequate for the purpose intended For it would have given the creditor no advantage which he does not now enjoy since the Government is as much bound to pay the debt now as it would be if the debt had been transferred into the shape proposed by this act The Herald looks at every financial question through repudiation goggles which greatly distorts its vision That paper seems unable to understand that none of the propositions made in Congress for reducing the interest contemplate compulsory or forcible reduction Its idea is that the only thing to be done is for Congress to simply cut off two or three per cent from the rate of interest now paid, and charges that the act proposed last summer contemplated this and was therefore a repudiation scheme! It is clear therefore as we observed before that the Herald never understood much about this question The only possible way whereby the interest can be reduced with advantage to the country is to make our securities so good an investment that a new loan will be offered at a lower rate of interest than we now pay Any other method will cause an expansion of the principal The Treasury has not been notified as yet that there are any capitalists desirous of investing in a new loan at a reduced rate of interest and there is no probability that it will be so informed until the Democratic party which comprises nearly half our population, ceases to threaten repudiation

It ought to be obvious enough to everybody that since our five-twenty bonds which bear six per cent interest are worth only about eighty cents in gold, our credit must be greatly improved before the debt can be funded at any lower rate of interest Capital must be assured that it is perfectly safe before it will go into such an investment It will take no chances and run no risks unless it is compensated therefor by a high rate of interest Other governments secure loans at lower rates than ours is compelled to pay and even some of our States can go into the market and get money on far better terms than the same can be done by our General Government Massachusetts for example can borrow money at four and a half per cent and her bonds are at par with gold England's debt is almost twice as large as ours and our resources are infinitely greater than hers yet she can borrow money at much lower rates than our Government is obliged to pay These are [illegible] facts They show precisely what is the matter with [illegible] The world [illegible] our honesty This distrust must be removed before our credit can rise It is just as true in the case of a nation as of an individual that [illegible]

INFORMATION NEEDED We wish [illegible] or some other bold rock Democrat who has personal knowledge of the [illegible] our Democratic contemporaries have perfect confidence would write letters to the [illegible] the Herald the De[illegible] the [illegible] informing them that the South [illegible] that slavery is abolished that peace has been declared that the resolutions of '98 are obsolete that Lee surrendered nearly four years ago and that the time [illegible] principles [illegible] Jeff Davis Our [illegible] contemporaries are [illegible] ing away as if none of these things had occurred Hence they often make themselves very ridiculous

THE PACIFIC COAST IN THE CABINET —Of course you know already the efforts that are making to create a public sentiment in favor of giving a Cabinet seat to the Pacific States in the person of John Conness. It is scarcely worth while wasting time in discussing the probability of such an appointment, for you may set it down as absolutely certain that it will never be made This is a case in which obstinate persistence won't avail The Senator's days end on the 4th of March next as those who still pin their faith and hope upon his sleeve will learn to their cost There is however we have reason to believe a disposition to give the Pacific Coast a Cabinet member Among the names mentioned in this connection is that of Fred Billings, but at present the chances most decidedly favor the claims of Senator Williams of Oregon whose marked ability is recognized by all parties, and who is a thinker as well as a worker If any man west of the Rocky Mountains attains a seat in Grant's Cabinet, it will be Williams unless he interposes some objection on his own behalf; but as for Conness the heavy influences attempted to be wielded through certain moneyed institutions in California is so clearly corrupt in its impulse and purpose that it would defeat its own aim even were Conness himself possessed of the requisite education, and the powers and graces of mind and manner and did he command the personal respect and confidence which General Grant will find indispensable in those who are to compose his administration —Wash Cor S F Bulletin

STATISTICS OF POPULATION Alexander Delmar the chief of the National Bureau of Statistics has just given to the light the results of his census studies He makes it the total population in 1868 to have been 37 743 198, of whom 4 633 371 were colored in 1860 the total was 31 445,070, of whom 4 469 505 were colored Assuming these figures to be approximately correct it appears that the colored race so far from perishing off the face of the South has considerably increased in numbers So after all freedom is not such a deadly dispensation to the race of men as one class of our politicians tell us The relative population of the great sections of the country is an interesting item Mr Delmar estimates the population of New England at 3 511 098 that of the Middle States including Maryland at 9 425 116 of the Southern States at 10 649 460 of whom 3 884 532 are colored of the Western States including the Pacific States 12 617 74[illegible] of the Territories 481 940

SAVANNAH Jan 12 —The removals from office under the Fourteenth Amendment continue rapidly About one hundred have been removed during the last three weeks

WASHINGTON Jan 12 —The Secretary of State in a report to Congress says the rightfulness of the exercise of certain judicial powers in matters against our own citizens by our Consul at Japan has never to his knowledge been called in question except by the Pacific Mail Company The Secretary thinks the subject should be relieved of all doubt by an express enactment with a proviso for an appeal to the courts of the United States or the Department of State

The President to day nominated A Simmons Collector of Internal Revenue for Montana

FORTRESS MONROE Jan 13 —The recent disturbance at Kempsville Virginia between the negroes and the loyal authorities resulting in the loss of several lives has been effectually quelled by the arrival of a detachment of U S soldiers

ALBANY Jan 13 —Nothing particularly noticeable has occurred in regard to the freshet On the piers the current continues very strong, and several buildings are slowly settling and will probably be wholly lost

Terrible Railroad Accident

PITTSBURGH Jan 1[illegible] —A terrible accident occurred this morning on the Pan Handle road the heavy rains having washed the earth from beneath the track leaving hundreds of ties with no foundation The sleeping car was detached from the train and hurled over an embankment sixty feet high Seven passengers were in the car of whom three were instantly killed and three others seriously wounded

NEW YORK Jan 13 —The Henry Chauncey from Aspinwall has arrived

Senatorial Struggle in Maine

AUGUSTA Me Jan 12 The Senatorial question has assumed a new aspect Percy member of the House declared that he threw a blank vote in the caucus unintentionally This leaves Hamlin with a clear majority of Republicans in the Legislature

Morrill's friends now claim that Hamlin has not been declared elected by the caucus that they are not bound to support him and intimate that they will not A movement is on foot to bring forward a new man as a compromise candidate Hamlin's friends feel that he was fairly the choice of his party and fairly nominated and that if any of his party refuses to vote for him he [illegible]

Cuban Affairs

HAVANA Jan 1[illegible] It is reported on good authority [illegible] left yesterday to meet [illegible] Bay [illegible] fully empowered to concede [illegible] and political rights on the [illegible] that Cuba is to continue under the flag of Spain

Rebels are closely pressing the seige at Marieta The garrison has turned one of the churches into a fortress With the assistance of the Spanish vessels of war in the harbor they are holding out for reinforcements A detachment sent to their relief by land was defeated by the insurgents The latter have no artillery but are well supplied with Spencer rifles, which they use with effect The transports with 1 500 troops from Cadiz arrived here to day

HOUSE LAW The Roseburg Ensign makes the following pointed remarks

The Democratic press which in years past has denounced the advocates of a higher law than the organic and statute laws of the Republic now commend a total disregard for [illegible] obligations The Herald speaking of the President's financial policy says He has asked the people to look at this question of finance from a higher standpoint than statutory enactments He has led the people to look at the justice and the right of the matter regardless of enactments and in so doing he has deserved the applause of every patriot"

What a contrast is presented between the sentiment expressed in the above quotation and [illegible] earnest [illegible] with which they have been [illegible] against anything which looked like [illegible] to a law for justice and right! But such is Democratic consistency The law is sacred as long as it promotes their policy and any denial of its supremacy is a heinous offense but when it conflicts with their plans however nefarious they may be to treat its obligations as without force and to teach the people to disregard them entitles a man to the applause of every patriot

RAKE AT ITEM While some men are trucks to bear the burdens of the earth or furnace-grates to bear the fires and to be consumed in obscurity others are driving wheels which give life and [illegible] to all with which they are connected Kohn & Fishel the leading Dry Goods merchants of Portland are the driving wheels of trade in that city They conceived and carried out completely a work [illegible] than the Pyramids grander than the gardens of Nineveh or the walls of Babylon for theirs [illegible] a monument for the dead neither the great destruction of a luxuriant fancy but it is a new pathway for purchasers a link to bind the chain of families and the hearts of men

SAIL UNDER FALSE COLORS!!

THE BEST EVIDENCE OF THE VALUE OF AN article may be found in the fact of its having numerous imitators. Every fine poem has its parodies every meritorious literary work is subject to plagiarisms, every successful play has been burlesqued every honest man has his detractors every genuine dollar has been counterfeited and every valuable medicinal preparation has its vile imitations The proprietors of

have encountered the usual experience in this respect Such has been the success of this sterling preparation that all other articles of the kind have virtually been driven from the market The concocters of these beverages finding that this new Tonic has exactly met the public want, and that no further demand exists for inferior preparations have resorted to the dishonest expedient of imitating either the name or the style of label both of which have been duly secured by the laws of the State to the proprietors of the I X L Bitters

In justice to ourselves as well as to the public who may be deceived by these nefarious practices we hereby notify all parties guilty of infringement on our rights as well as those who have been buying up our old bottles in order to palm off their own compounds as the genuine article that they will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law

For the further protection of consumers, we would state that we never sell our Bitters in bulk but always by the case Look for our Trade Mark on every bottle and in ordering the article otherwise than direct from us be sure to order Dr Henley's Wild Grape Root I X L Bitters and don't allow yourself to be imposed upon with an inferior article

ORDINANCES

[illegible] declaring the surplus on assessment [illegible] the improvement of Pine street from [illegible] streets, was read and passed.

[illegible] ordinance adjusting the cost and [illegible] the surplus assessed for the improvement [illegible] street between Front and Fourth [illegible] was read and passed

[illegible] appropriating the sum of $10,400 [illegible] collected to pay interest on Railroad [illegible] payment of contract with the O. C [illegible] Company (West side), was called up [illegible] third time, and during the pendency [illegible] to pass the bill and the roll call, a [illegible] was made to postpone for the present the [illegible] the bill at this time until the [illegible] be made and properly signed Re[illegible] made by some of the members, when [illegible] motion prevailed, and the final passage [illegible] went over.

[illegible] was offered, read and adopted, [illegible] the Committee on Streets and Public [illegible] to cause thirty four street lamps to be [illegible] different portions of the city.

[illegible] PUGET SOUND —The Port Townsend pa[illegible] Among the recommendations to the Secretary [illegible] Treasury we see Mr Mullet, Supervising Ar[illegible] Government includes $50 000 in addition to [illegible] already appropriated, for a Custom [illegible] Portland Oregon. Now, we have no objec[illegible] it would prove of public service, that pub[illegible] be used in erecting buildings at the [illegible] any other available locality We do, how[illegible] an equality in the distribution of public [illegible] the economy of expending large [illegible] Inland Custom houses The prospect [illegible] a Custom House at Portland does not [illegible] in two years time the outlet to the trade [illegible] and Columbia River valleys will be [illegible] Now, we don't ask that several millions [illegible] here, or anywhere else on Puget [illegible] because a dozen vessels enter [illegible] Portland, but we do plead for a Custom [illegible] which would not make a horse blush [illegible] in it—even a coat of paint to the pres[illegible] would be a little improvement " We sym[illegible] more or less with our Port Townsend friends [illegible] hope that in the fullness of time they [illegible] coat of paint on their little customs [illegible] have a serene confidence that even that [illegible] movement at that great maritime me[illegible] not materially affect the price of real [illegible] or diminish the number of scows, [illegible] among them, now and then, a [illegible] brig, ship, or steamer—which annually [illegible] from, our wharves. Nor do we [illegible] believe that it would utterly destroy [illegible] which, after a struggle of some [illegible] grown up here, in flax seed, onions [illegible], etc Let the United States of America [illegible] Townsend institution if they feel like it [illegible] and we don't object to liberal expendi[illegible] national pictures, wherever and whenever, [illegible] make the sovereign people happy But [illegible] comment that the Port Townsend [illegible] with all the paint they want, we ob[illegible] timid and earnest manner to the prop[illegible] all our trade with barbarous out[illegible] Puget Sound Does the newspaper Town[illegible] that our barterers in onions and hoop[illegible] other things we have to sell, will con[illegible] railroad or overland mud wagon freight on [illegible], to Puget Sound—say, $10 per ton—[illegible] to pay as much to freight them from there [illegible], or China or Australia, or New York [illegible] have to pay to freight from here to either [illegible] Not even the sweet consolation of know[illegible] papers covering their cargoes were issued [illegible] of a painted custom house, would com[illegible] an extra outlay In moving their crops [illegible] the Port Townsenders will spare our folks [illegible] getting a little start in the world and per[illegible] carry on their humble traffic in their own [illegible] care for [illegible] that is to say, not enough [illegible] to pay ten dollars nor any other sum [illegible] per ton for the sake of shipping our truck [illegible] so long as scows and steamers and ships [illegible] willing to come here as cheaply as they [illegible] Sound—the painted custom house not [illegible]

[illegible] COUNTRY —We learn that a day or two [illegible] out from Portland to Forest Grove and [illegible] the twelve cases of small pox in this city [illegible] totally untrue So far as we can learn there [illegible] the city Fall sown wheat is looking [illegible] the Tualitin plains It is expected that [illegible] improvements on a liberal scale as [illegible] opens Social parties are un[illegible] during this rainy season On his [illegible] Forest Grove Jamison had six passengers [illegible] four for Centerville and three for the Grove [illegible] express, and divers parcels which are [illegible] parts of the town and brought to his [illegible] No 21 Washington street whence he [illegible] distributes them The people of Centerville [illegible] options of money to clear out Dairy [illegible] make it navigable for the steamer Onward [illegible] revival meeting at Forest Grove is [illegible] and a lively interest in it is maintained [illegible] been much improved on the route to the [illegible], and yet there is room for improve[illegible] were three parties on the road, yesterday, [illegible] between here and Hillsboro

[illegible] SITKA —A Sitka correspondent of the [illegible], under date of December 21st, says [illegible] wrote you many changes have taken place [illegible] Sitka is comparatively depopulated [illegible] Americans who came here to make a home [illegible] the country [illegible] around Sitka, [illegible] Cook's Inlet hundreds of miles distant from [illegible] for Oregon California elsewhere [illegible] Russians have also left Some went to the [illegible] Asia, there to California while the [illegible] have left for Russia The Winged Arrow [illegible] from here on the 8th for St. Petersburg [illegible] besides the women and children (not in[illegible] crew,) in all she took over 300 persons.

[illegible] —The Unionist denies that there has been [illegible] case of small pox in Salem A Salem [illegible] shipped twenty five thousand bushels of [illegible] for fifty five cents per bushel J G [illegible] the Oregon Candy Manufactory shipped off [illegible] 1,300 pounds of assorted candies The [illegible] of the late State Fair is being [illegible] to every part of the State The pal[illegible] closed on Monday on account of the [illegible]

[illegible] —It is stated that Mr Gilman the owner [illegible] at the corner of Alder and First streets—[illegible] the fire—will erect on the site a large [illegible] building the coming season It will be [illegible] style of architecture as Carter s block which [illegible]

REVIVAL —Sir Edward Lytton Bulwer s famous play of Richelieu [illegible] Company will be performed at the [illegible] Theatre to-night [illegible] benefit of Mr Bates' benefit. It is a very [illegible] production [illegible] passages of great [illegible] and is considered one of the most unobjectionable plays in the modern standard drama It was written for that great English [illegible] Macready [illegible] originally performed by [illegible] [illegible] Shortly after [illegible] New York [illegible] [illegible] with [illegible] the principal events of [illegible] the administration of the great minister France ever knew Voltaire says of him that he is the architect of the French monarchy and the great parent of French [illegible] [illegible] startling [illegible] thing [illegible] Bulwer [illegible] [illegible] exceedingly attractive [illegible] one of the great [illegible] most interesting periods in the history of [illegible]

UNITARIAN SOCIETY At the annual meeting of the members [illegible] Tuesday evening Messrs C W Burrage R R Thompson and Charles Hodge were elected trustees to serve the ensuing two years The [illegible] in number one [illegible] two years The report of the financial officer [illegible] proper [illegible] money matters The membership had grown largely since the society was organized [illegible] Rev Mr Eliot [illegible] a [illegible] stable

DELAYED AND MISSENT MAILS [illegible] Salem [illegible] papers dated [illegible] 21 and [illegible] Salem paper dated Dec 11th On the day before a letter dated and post marked Salem, Dec 11th, was received, via Salt Lake City A business firm in the northern end of the city received a Salem letter of the same date which had also come by the Salt Lake cut off We can t exactly see the propriety of sending the mails from Salem to Portland by that route though we will not presume to say that there might not have been a sufficient reason for it. PLUMBING GAS FITTING ETC.—See Mr C H Myer s new advertisement Myers is getting proud we guess on account of having such a large fine stock of goods and fixtures on hand—at all events he has put in a bran new glass front this week and appears to be putting on airs now However, there seems to be no symptoms of abandoning the old business on the contrary quite the reverse—he is spreading out and going it stronger than ever

SAILED —The steamship Geo S Wright sailed at 3 P M yesterday for Victoria with a heavy freight of Oregon produce. She carried but a few passengers

CARD —In another column will be found a card from Messrs Patterson and Semple concerning their recent proposition to establish a newspaper here

Sixty of the prominent graduates of Harvard College, including representatives of nearly all the classes from the year 1817, have issued an appeal to the Alumni throughout the world in behalf of a class subscription fund for the purpose of increasing the salaries of professors, and for the purpose of making additions to the library It is proposed to raise half a million of dollars, the interest of which is to be applied to the purposes named

A transcendental preacher took for his text —"Feed my lambs " A plain farmer very quietly remarked to him on coming out of the church "A very good text, sir, but you should take care not to put the hay so high in the rack that the lambs can t reach it!"

Quiggins, who is a bachelor, will adopt the Grecian Bend during the winter nights

A CARD.

Having announced that we were about to start a Democratic newspaper in Portland it is proper at this time for us to state why we have not done so When we made the announcement alluded to above there was need of such a journal as we intended to publish; and a large proportion of the Democracy of the State sanctioned and encouraged the proposed enterprise Since then the Morning Com[illegible] having come out as a Democratic sheet, fills the place we intended to occupy, and there being now two Democratic journals in this city it would be embarrassing and hazardous to start a third.

To the very many gentlemen who gave expression to their good will for us we are much obliged

PROSPECTUS

THE SAN FRANCISCO HERALD.

On the FIRST OF JANUARY 1869 THE SAN FRANCISCO HERALD will be revived as a first class Commercial Daily Newspaper Independent in politics under the Editorial control of its former Editor JOHN NUGENT assisted by a thoroughly efficient and able Staff The Herald will be issued as a Morning Paper, but there will be an Afternoon Edition prepared for the interior of the State and for News, with the Market [illegible] Stock and Local Reports up to the hour of going to press

It is the design of the present enterprise to establish the best newspaper that—by the aid of unlimited means and the highest order of talent in all its departments—can be published on this coast, making it, in all essential particulars, as much a necessity to the [illegible] and Business Public and as valuable as a newspaper, as any of the first-class New York Journals. It will be the chief aim of its projectors—by the exactness of its information on all matters of Business to give it a staple reputation for thorough reliability as a Commercial and Business Paper, at the same time that in the ability of its conduct in the other departments—Law, [illegible] Local Intelligence, and other items that go to make up a Daily [illegible] it shall likewise be kept up to the highest standard.

While the vast Agricultural Interest and the rapidly growing Manufacturing Industry of the State will be earnestly promoted, as well Editorially as in the News Department that interest which drew hither the first grand tide of immigration will be fostered with special care Everything worthy to be known in connection with Mining Enterprises and all inventions and discoveries calculated to enhance the profits or stimulate the labor of the Miner shall be duly chronicled and described

Mr Nugent, whose ability as an Editor is sufficiently known, will be assisted by gentlemen whose judgments have been educated and matured by long and varied experience in their respective Departments

TERMS ETC —The San Francisco Herald will be published every morning, and will be furnished to subscribers at 50 cents per week payable to the Carriers single copies 10 cents It will be mailed to subscribers outside the city at Eighteen Dollars a year payable in advance, 6 months, Nine Dollars 3 months, Five Dollars

Communications intended for the Editor should be addressed to John Nugent, 414 California street, San Francisco. Business letters may be sent to

SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS.

TO THE CITIZENS OF OREGON

I BEG LEAVE TO CALL THE ATTENTION OF THE citizens of Oregon to my celebrated AROMATIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS a medicinal Diet Drink of eminently salutary qualities manufactured by myself exclusively at my factory at Schiedam in Holland

[illegible]

It is now some twenty years since the Proprietor first [illegible] the American public and during that time he has received over 3 000 letters from physicians, [illegible] they have ever used in their practice

It is made from barley of the finest quality selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated growers [illegible] flavored with the essence of the [illegible] of Italy and is rectified by a peculiar process which expels from the spirit every acrid particle

As a means of preventing and correcting [illegible] the dangerous effects produced on the stomach and bowels by a change of water —a visitation to which travelers new settlers and all unacclimated persons are peculiarly liable—the

SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS

Will be found absolutely infallible while in cases of [illegible] gravel obstructions of the kidneys [illegible] of the bladder [illegible] dyspepsia and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession

It is put up in quart and pint bottles in cases with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac simile of his signature on the label For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants

Are you WEAK DEBILITATED NERVOUS! Is your sleep disturbed? Do you have palpitation of the heart or an inclination to melancholy? [illegible] of such nature requires a prompt DIURETIC which will be found in

A PUNGENT LETTER TO THE REV. MR. STRONG.

From the Cleveland Herald.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14, 1868.

REV. MR. STRONG, CLEVELAND, O.:

SIR: I have read your sermon on Thanksgiving Day, which, being a sort of secular sabbath, seems to have caused you to use the pulpit for the purpose of personal vituperation in the interest of capital and the money changers, whom our Divine Master drove out of God's Holy Temple with a scourge of small cords. Nay, He expelled therefrom those who sold doves, an innocent occupation compared with that of the gold gamblers and speculators, to whom you seem to have given the benefits of the sanctuary. It seems you were not even aware of the facts upon which you predicated your personal attack, from the pulpit, upon myself by name, and the majority of the Republican Representatives in Congress. There was no proposition to tax the bonds, only the income derived from them, as the Government has always done. That proposition did not go to a committee for consideration, but the committee were ordered to bring in a bill to make that proposition law. As I assume, if you had known the facts, you would not have borne "false witness against your neighbors," I send you with this note a copy of my speech, which, if you will read carefully, will show you what was proposed, and also an extract from a letter in reply to a gentleman who, while he was disposed to criticise, was just enough to endeavor to find out what my views were before he condemned them. Pardon me, reverend Sir. If your sermon had not been sent me in the Cleveland Herald marked, I should not have troubled you with a reply at all, and even now, I should class the publication with the lucubrations of "Brick Pomeroy" and "Dinnis O'Flaherty," which you will find printed on the back of your sermon, did I not suppose you were honestly mistaken, and might be willing to be set right. Respectfully,

BENJ. F. BUTLER.

P. S.—I should be pleased to hear from you a sermon on this text: "Why dost thou judge thy brother?" or, "Why dost thou set at naught thy brother for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ?"

The following is a copy of the letter to which Mr. Butler refers in the above:

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10, 1868.

"MY DEAR SIR: I am always happy to welcome just, manly and considerate criticism upon my public acts. Yours are so mingled with kindness and consideration, that I were shameless to do otherwise. Let me assure you, however, that you are discussing a subject—[illegible]—which you do not, and I do, understand to some degree; one upon which you do not even know the views I hold. I venture this assertion because you say, 'Uncle Sam will never tax the interest on his bonds.' That is precisely what he does do, and ever has done, since the rebellion. He has always taxed the income on the bonds and I know of no other income from a bond but the [illegible]. Do you? That was at first taxed at 1-2 per cent. when we were selling the bonds, afterward raised to 5 per cent. When we got through, selling them, we more than trebled the amount of tax, you see. Yet no [illegible] or paper lisped a word that this was repudiation or dishonest. And why? First, because it [illegible] neither [illegible] and mainly because in fact we only taxed the conscience of the holder of the bond, i. e., we taxed only the income which the conscience of the holder [illegible] to swear he had when he [illegible] to the assessor. I saw, therefore, that the good and conscientious [illegible] any tax on the income derived from bonds. I saw, too, that the number of those was getting less and less. I found by the returns that a just revenue from the bonds would be in '64-'65, say $1,200,000; that at 1-2 per cent. we got only $75,000, and in '65-'66, when we should have had say, $1,700,000, we got only $133,000. That is, only one holder in ten of income was returned when the tax was 1-2 per cent. When the tax was raised to 5 per cent. on incomes I put the calculation somewhat thus: if 1-2 per cent. will make 9 men in 10 make false return of income on their bonds, will what 5 per cent. tax do? You can cipher it out by the 'rule of three' at your leisure. I proposed to make the income tax on the bonds 10 per cent. and why? Because [illegible] State [illegible], and I thought that taxation should be equalized. The [illegible] of repudiation, dishonesty, swindling was raised at once, and wherefore? I had only proposed to double the present income tax on the bonds. Congress had before trebled it, and not a word was said against the right or propriety of so doing. Again, resorting to the 'rule of three,' if doubling the tax is dishonesty, repudiation and swindling, what crime was trebling the same tax? But [illegible] I proposed doubling the income tax only, how the rascals howled repudiation! Yet never a word when Congress trebled it. What then [illegible]? Because the rascals did not care a copper for any income tax which only taxed the conscience of the holder of the bond. They [illegible] a net which only caught gudgeons, but I determined not to be cheated and therefore proposed to have my income collected by the Treasurer by withholding it from the coupon when he was called upon to pay the interest on the bond. That made everybody pay equally; none would escape. How the rascals shrieked and yelled in agony about repudiation and dishonesty. Then Sam Ward and gold gamblers were in [illegible] for a candidate against me. Then Dana [illegible] upon the course. Then Hawley and Clark [illegible]. Then Kilpatrick and every [illegible] through the district, and the [illegible], Springfield Republican and New York Times, lavishly launched leaden [illegible] myself and constituents. But in [illegible] my income tax [illegible] collected, and it could not have been evaded, would have given upward of $13,000,000 where we do not get one million now. How many such candidates, [illegible], orators and praters as we had interfering in the affairs of the Fifth District do you think the difference, $12,000,000, would and did buy to oppose my scheme of taxation? How much of calumny and abuse [illegible] half starved Bohemians would that sum bring to cry out repudiation and praise the [illegible] of which not one of their own they were ever known to [illegible]."

CHANCE OF NAME!

MERCADO & CO., SUCCESSORS TO Mercado & Seully, have been obliged for their own protection and the safety of the public to change the name of their celebrated Bitters to

Native California Wine
BITTERS

We subjoin the following affidavit in an injunction suit formerly pending between Mercado & Seully, plaintiffs, and G. A. Simon, defendant:

P. Sainsevain, being duly sworn, says, "That the article known as Sainsevain's California Wine Bitters was manufactured by Mercado & Seully about the month of March, 1861, without the said Sainsevain Brothers having any concern in the manufacture thereof. This deponent has always known and considered said Mercado & Seully as the Sole Proprietors of the Sainsevain California Wine Bitters."

Notwithstanding the above affidavit the said P. Sainsevain is putting up a compound under the name of Sainsevain's California Wine Bitters, representing it to be the same as our celebrated Bitters, which we have been manufacturing and selling in immense quantities since 1860, and also affixing a nearly similar label to that used on our genuine Wine Bitters. BE NOT DECEIVED! Send for

NATIVE CALIFORNIA WINE BITTERS,

And you will obtain the same popular beverage so favorably known since 1860. Beware of Counterfeits! Purchasers of our Wine Bitters are requested to observe the familiar old yellow label, and see that the words, "MERCADO & SEULLY, SAN FRANCISCO," are engraved on the Government stamp pasted over the cork of each bottle. This is the only effectual security against the counterfeit imitations.

NOTES.

Proposals must be to carry the mail with "celerity, certainty, and security," using the terms of the law, and they must be guaranteed by two responsible persons, certified to as such by a postmaster or judge of a court of record.

No pay will be made for trips not performed, and for each of such omissions not satisfactorily explained three times the pay of the trip may be deducted. For arrivals so far behind time as to break connections with depending mails, and not sufficiently excused, one-fourth of the compensation for the trip is subject to forfeiture. Fines will be imposed, unless the delinquency be satisfactorily explained, for neglecting to take the mail from or into a postoffice, for suffering it to be injured, robbed, or lost; and for refusing, after demand, to convey the mail as frequently as the contractor runs, or is concerned in running vehicles on the route. The Postmaster General may annul the contract for disobeying the post office laws, or the instructions of the Department. He may alter the schedule of departures and arrivals, and also order an increase of service by allowing therefor a pro rata increase on the contract pay. He may also curtail or discontinue the service in whole or in part at a pro rata decrease of pay, allowing one month's extra compensation on the amount of service dispensed with. Bids should be addressed to the "Second Assistant Postmaster General," superscribed "Proposals, State of Oregon," and sent by mail.

For forms of proposal, &c., and other information, see advertisement of this date, in pamphlet form, at the principal post offices. ALEX. W. RANDALL, j11dlaw4w Postmaster General.

OF THE

Weekly Oregonian.

FOR 1869.

Nineteenth Volume!

Only $3.00 a Year.

By common consent, the OREGONIAN ranks first among the papers published in the Northwest. It is the oldest paper in the State, and its circulation and influence are greater than that of any other two papers combined. As a journal of enterprise in gathering the latest intelligence, and in giving in each issue a larger amount and greater variety of reading matter it has no competitor. It is thoroughly identified with this city and State and neighboring Territories, where the number of its readers and its influence are constantly increasing.

An unflinching advocate of sound Union principles, it at the same time pays special attention not only to MATTERS OF GENERAL INTEREST, but to everything of moment to the great

Agricultural, Manufacturing,

HIRAM SMITH'S
Ophthalmic Panacea!

IS WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST WONDERFUL EYE HEALER that has yet been discovered. [illegible] It CURES the most stubborn and hopeless cases of CHRONIC INFLAMMATIONS, GRANULATED LIDS, FILMS, &c., as has been sufficiently [illegible] during the few months in which it has been brought before public notice. The proprietor is so fully [illegible] of its INFALLIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE OR REFUNDS THE MONEY. It can do the eyes no harm, and a trial of it is therefore without injury or [illegible] to the patient if a cure is not effected.

It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE, [illegible] and even EIGHTEEN YEARS' standing in [illegible] Linn county, Oregon, and its vicinity, to which the following persons will bear witness:

K. H. MOORE,	NATHANIEL [illegible],
A. L. WALLACE,	G. R. WARD,
Mrs. MONTGOMERY,	JOHN M. HOLLOWAY,
W. D. PORTER,	ROB'T [illegible],

And others in that vicinity.

Persons afflicted with the distressing [illegible] of diseased eyes are advised to give this remedy a fair trial on the NO CURE, NO PAY and NO INJURY plan.
